Imagine every time you and your loved ones turned on a faucet for over 400 days to consume water, that you were unknowingly putting lead in your body.

Shock Technique

Preview Main Points

- Many people have seen the aftermath of what is called the Flint Water Crisis. Fortunately, there are many people who have felt led to aid in getting clean water to the residents. The question may be, how could we have prevented something so tragic from happening? Who is responsible for this? There are many of those who we elected and entrusted that would do the right thing for not just the citizens of Flint but the entire state of Michigan.

Thesis Statement

- We will examine the different aspects of the State Governor's position and what we as citizens that elected this official should expect.
